PRESS RELEASE

“The Department of Elections for New Castle County announces that an additional School Board seat will be up for election on May 12, 2009. We have just been notified by the school district that a member of the Red Clay Consolidated School District’s Board has resigned, creating a vacancy in Nominating District C,” said Anthony Albence, Administrative Director. “Individuals interested in running for this seat have until March 6, 2009 at 4:30 pm to file paperwork with the Department of Elections. A candidate must reside in Nominating District C to be eligible. More information, including a map of the Nominating District and the required Candidate Filing Form, is available on our webpage at <http://electionsncc.delaware.gov>,” concluded Mr. Albence.
